

Please continue to allow XM Radio to offer local programming like XM Instant Traffic and Weather. Such service provides travelers with instant realtime access to valuable information. When travelling, it saves time by allowing drivers to alter course. It also provides additional safety since travellers do not have to divert eyes from the road while consistently attempting to tune the car radio in search of an unfamiliar local station which may provide the information at some unknown time.

Thank you.